

Event Code of Conduct

Introduction

The International Forum on Digital Currency and Consumer Rights (“the Forum”) is committed to providing a professional, respectful, and inclusive environment for all participants.

All attendees, including speakers, delegates, organisers, and partners, are expected to adhere to this Code of Conduct throughout all Forum-related activities, including pre-event engagements and official sessions.

Expected Behaviour

Participants are expected to:

- Engage in discussions in a respectful, constructive, and professional manner
  - Contribute to an open and inclusive policy dialogue
  - Respect diverse perspectives, backgrounds, and expertise
  - Comply with applicable laws and regulations
  - Follow instructions from event organisers and staff

Unacceptable Behaviour

The following behaviours will not be tolerated:

- Harassment, discrimination, or intimidation of any kind
  - Disruptive behaviour that interferes with sessions or discussions
  - Offensive language or personal attacks
  - Any form of political campaigning or promotion of partisan interests
  - Unauthorized recording or distribution of confidential discussions

Confidentiality & Integrity

Participants are expected to:

- Respect the confidentiality of closed-door discussions where applicable
- Use information shared during the Forum responsibly
- Avoid misrepresentation of discussions, participants, or outcomes

Enforcement

The organisers reserve the right to take appropriate action in response to violations of this Code of Conduct, including:

- Warning the participant
- Removal from sessions
- Revocation of participation without refund (if applicable)

Reporting Concerns

If you experience or witness any inappropriate behaviour, please contact the organising team immediately via the official support email provided on this website.

Commitment

By participating in the Forum, all participants agree to abide by this Code of Conduct and contribute to a constructive and meaningful policy dialogue.
